We use UPS Ground for all shipments. Shipping charges are subject to change throughout the year due to fuel surcharges from the shipping carrier. Any shipments beyond the United States North American Continent, including US Territories, Alaska, Hawaii and all International orders, will be charged an additional fee based on the weight of the order. Once the order has been filled and weighed, the Bellanina Institute will contact you with an accurate shipping cost. Please note that there is not a set international shipping price; prices will vary from order to order.
